PHILIPPIANS 1:27

may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

1:28 only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel, and not shrinking from anything by your opponents. This is a clear sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God. For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only suffer for his sake, but also in the same conflict that you saw I had and still have.

Christ’s Example of Humility

2 So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also of God’s grace for one another. Knowing more about his life gives more cause to relate his life (glory) to others. May you...
